Welcome to issue 7 of our e-bulletin.

Welcome to issue 7 of our e-bulletin. This is a special issue to provide you with information about the post-16 reform announcements made on Monday 2 July.

Contents – click on any of the links to go to the article:

Articles for everyone

- Article 1 – Post-16 reforms
- Article 2 – EFA customer survey

If you would like to give feedback, please contact us at efa.bulletin@efa.education.gov.uk. To add recipients to the distribution list, please send their name, email address, organisation, organisation type and role.

All statutory guidance and legislation linked from this site reflects the current legal position unless indicated otherwise, but it may not reflect current Government policy.

Please click here to see copies of the Skills Funding Agency’s updates

Information for all – local authorities, 16-19 providers and academies with a sixth form

Article 1 - Post-16 reforms

On 2 July, the Secretary of State set out details of post-16 reforms. These were the Government’s response to three consultations: study programmes for 16-19 year olds; Raising Participation Age, including plans for implementation; and the 16-19 Funding Formula review.

The changes to the 16-19 funding system are designed to make the system fairer and simpler and in particular to support all young people equitably so that they have the best chance of going to higher education, getting good jobs and succeeding in life.

Further information on the funding formula, programmes of study and Raising Participation Age is available on the DfE website.

Back up
Action for all EFA customers - including local authorities, 16-19 providers, academies and capital contractors

Article 2–EFA customer survey

The EFA is asking its customers for their views on the service we provide. The anonymous online survey should take no more than 10 minutes to complete and will help the EFA to review the service it provides in the future. The survey is available at: https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/GLRVN57 and is open until 27 July.

Back up